

Woman's City Club is proud to announce that Janet Buening has been elected president.

Janet Buening loves the energy and dedication of Woman's City Club members and is honored to serve as President. She brings a wide range of professional skills to the role from her parallel careers as a marketing manager, teacher, adjunct professor, editor, and journalist; currently she teaches professional development for early childhood educators through CET and does freelance writing and editing. Since joining WCC in 2009, she has served on board and as Nominating Committee chair, newsletter editor, grant writer, editor/designer/production manager of the Centennial cookbook, Stirring the Pot, and on the Program, National Speaker Forum, Communications, Centennial, and Seasingood Luncheon committees.

Janet is a founding member and past president of the Hyde Park Neighborhood Council, currently chairing the new long-range plan for Hyde Park; co-founder of Cornerstone Loan Fund; past president of Cincinnati Editors Association and Catholic Residential Services; board member of the Hyde Park Center for Older Adults; an active member and officer of Cincinnati Catholic Women since 1974; and a former leader, trainer, and Nominating Committee member for Great Rivers Girl Scout Council. She sings with Oakley Voices, is a lector at St. Mary Church, and hosts phone banks for candidates she supports. A lifelong resident of Cincinnati, she has lived in Hyde Park with her husband Greg since 1972 and has three adult children.
